Dear High School Art Instructor:

This year marks the 31st Anniversary of the Congressional Art Competition: An Artistic Discovery. Congressman Ron Paul is very proud to be a part of this nationwide art competition, which provides a great opportunity to showcase the talents of creative high school students in the 14th congressional district of Texas.

Since this competition was created in 1982, more than 650,000 high school students have participated. The winning entries from last year's successful competition currently are displayed in the House of Representatives in Washington D.C., specifically in the Cannon Building tunnel. This exhibit represents the combined efforts of the Members who conducted the annual contest and the talented students who participated in this exciting competition.

The winner of the 2012 Congressional Art Competition will have their artwork displayed in the Cannon Building for one year and will receive 2 roundtrip plane tickets to attend the ribbon cutting/opening ceremonies of the art exhibit in Washington D.C. (donated by Southwest Airlines). The winner also has the opportunity to qualify for a scholarship to the Savannah College of Art and Design.

The deadline for submitting artwork will be Thursday, April 26, 2012.

Artwork must be submitted to one of the locations listed below, by 5 p.m. on Thursday, April 26, 2012:

Office of Congressman Ron Paul, Lake Jackson- 122 West Way Street, Suite 301, (979) 285-0231
Office of Congressman Ron Paul, Victoria- 1501 E. Mockingbird Lane, Suite 229, (361) 576-1231

A typed copy of the Student Release Form, (attached) signed by both the teacher and students, must accompany the artwork to certify the originality of the piece.

For more information please contact Twila Lindblade at (409) 382-5084, or by email twila.lindblade@mail.house.gov.

Kind regards,

Twila Lindblade
Office of Congressman Ron Paul
