Galveston, TX - Judging for the 2011 C

The winning piece chosen for this year's competition was from Christian Diaz, an Angleton High School

This year marks the 20th

Ester Weress, Diaz's art teacher, was elated to learn the news that one of her students' art work was ch

Diaz will receive 2 round trip plane tickets, compliments of Southwest Airlines, to attend the ribbon cuttin

The judges for this year's competition were, Saralene Tapley, an accomplished artist and art instructor a

This year was another successful year for the Congressional Art Competition.

"We have some extremely talented students in our district," said Congressman Paul. "It was a tough con

The congressman and staff wish to thank all students, teachers, judges and other individuals who assis www.house.gov/paul .

"Grazing" by Christian Diaz